Meaning of Ala:

There is no doubt that the compassionate God has bestowed infinite blessings upon us. As servants, we are incapable of fully appreciating these countless blessings, but seeking refuge in the noble verse "Then which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?" [٥٥. Ar-Rahman Verse: ١٣], we endeavor to at least acknowledge and give thanks for one of His divine blessings. One of the greatest blessings that the Lord has granted to His creation is sustenance and provision. He is the God who forgives without measure to whomever He wills. Therefore, we have decided to name the window of our sustenance and provision as one of God's blessings, known as "Ala."
